THE South-Carolina Gazette.

From MONDAY April 24th, to MONDAY May 1st, 1749.

EXTRACTS from the GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE for Nov. 1748.

SCOTLAND.

AT a numerous meeting of feceders on the 16th inſtant at Edinburgh, in order to ſwear the new modell'd ſcheme and covenant, ſeveral hundreds adventur'd on the oath, tho' the greater part took it ad aviſandum. They ſolemnly engage to ſtrengthen one another's hands in the uſe of lawful means to extirpate Popery, Prelacy, Armimaniſm, Arianiſm, Tritheiſm, Sabellioniſm, George Whiteſieldiſm, &c. —— On a motion in the ſynod of Lothian and Tweedale, whether it was proper for the Miniſters to employ Mr. Whiteſield in their pulpits, or otherways countenance him, reſolved it was an irregular practice, and recommended the not employing him for the future.——The ſame has been done by the preſbytery of Edinburgh.

POLAND.

The dyet of Poland has, as uſual, broke up in confuſion, without determining any one point laid before them; ſo that their army is to continue on its old footing, the amity of other ſtates neglected, and Courland is to want a duke, tho' three perſons are living who have been choſen to that ſovereignty.—The aim of the Poliſh nobility, who have an acknowledged right to the inveſtiture of that dutchy, is rather to annex it to their republic, than concur in fixing over it a ſeparate head.—The kings of France and Poland would doubtleſs, be glad to ſee the election of M. Saxe more valid; and his Pruſſian majeſty has dropp'd ſome hints of his deſire that one of his brothers might be elected duke.— The king of Pruſſia, whoſe troops are already near 200,000, is ſtill liſting men, and 60,000, it is ſaid, will march towards Bohemia and Moravia, the quarters of the Ruſſian auxiliaries; others deſtine them towards the Ducal Pruſſia, which is ſeparated but by a narrow tract of Samogitia from Courland.

GERMANY and ITALY.

Schemes, 'tis ſaid, are forming for getting the young archduke Joſeph elected K. of the Romans, and ſending him, as ſoon as he becomes of age, to reſide in Hungary; for chuſing the third ſon of the K. of Poland coadjutor to the elector of Cologn, and for obtaining the reverſion of Hildeſheim, which is ſurrounded by the dominions of the houſe of Brunſwick, in favour of the duke of Cumberland, on whom the alternative of Oſnabrug will, in all probability, devolve.

In the ſubterraneous city of Heraclea has been lately diſcovered among other rare pieces of antiquity, a book compos'd of iron leaves full of characters, ſeveral columns of a deep ſcarlet-colour'd marble, an entire ſtaircaſe of the fineſt prophyry, and ſeveral ſuperbe pictures admirably painted.

FRANCE.

We have repeated accounts from Paris of the obſtinacy of the pretender's ſon, in refuſing to depart the kingdom of France, tho' notice was given him in form, of the neceſſity of his compliance, firſt by the duke of Geſvres, governor of Paris, and then by a letter under the king's own hand.

Verſailles, Nov. 28. The earl of Suſſex and lord Cathcart, whom the K. of G. Britain has ſent to France, to remain there as hoſtages, had yeſterday the honour to be preſented to the king, and to deliver to him a letter from his Britannic majeſty.

From the Liſt of Deaths.

Oct. 27. Doct. John Tennent, who diſcovered the virtues of the ſenecca-rattle-ſnake root.

Nov. 25. Iſaac Watts, D.D. a truly ingenious and accompliſhed perſon, as well in polite literature as divinity and the ſciences, of which his writings as well poetical as proſaic abundantly teſtify, and no leſs exemplary for candor, piety, and ſolid virtue.—He was a diſſenting miniſter, but honour'd by all parties.

In the Eaſt-Indies. Sir Yelverton Peyton and Capt. Stevens, commanders of ſhips of war under Commodore Griffin.

From the Liſt of Promotions.

Captain Gordon, commander of the Gower, a new 20 gun ſhip.

Archbiſhop of York, appointed lord high almoner to his majeſty, in the room of Dr. Sherlock now Biſhop of London.

EXTRACTS from the Gentleman's Magazine for Dec. 1748.

FRANCE.

THE young pretender perſiſting in his humour not to comply with his moſt chriſtian majeſty's deſires, and even repeated commands to depart this kingdom, was ſeiz'd and ſent away by force.

They are building at Toulon 6 ſhips of war, and 18 more in the ports of the Ocean. [beſides thoſe mentioned in this Gazette No. 780] —The Eaſt-India company has 30 ſhips ready to put to ſea, beſides 14 which are ſail'd ſince re-eſtabliſhment of peace.

LONDON.

December 3. Sailed out of the river the Grande Biche privateer, formerly taken by the Engliſh, and now purchaſed by the French; ſhe had 50 new pieces of cannon and 400 tons of lead on board.

December 22. Near 1400 ſailors, belonging to 7 ſhips of war, under Admirals Rowley, Medley and Byng, went to St. James's to ſollicit for their prize-money; they all eſcorted his Majeſty to the houſe of peers, and back again.

Several enginiers and artichects are ordered for Scotland to view the north-weſt coaſts, and mark ſuch places as are proper to be fortified; the 13 forts, its ſaid, are to be erected, to mount from 30 to 12 guns, of 18, 12 and 6 pounders. The fortifications of Carliſle are alſo ordered to be repaired.

From the Liſt of Deaths.

December 2. Charles Seymour, duke of Somerſet. He is ſucceeded in honour and Eſtate by his only ſon, Algernon earl of Hertford.

December 28. Sir John Stracey, recorder of London.

From the Liſt of Promotions.

The duke of Newcaſtle, elected chancellor of the univerſity of Cambridge.

Captain Megrick Le Angle, commander of the Devonſhire, of 80 guns.

Dr. Gilbert Biſhop of Landaff, elected to the ſee of Saliſbury, void by the tranſlation of Dr. Sherlock to that of London.

On the Advertiſements to prohibit the making of FIREWORKS.

WHY joyful Fireworks only in the Park?
And all the Realm beſides be dull and dark?
I cannot ſay, as I'm a Sinner,
Unleſs There lives the only Winner.

EXTRACTS from the GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE for Jan. 1749.

RUSSIA and the NORTH.

ON the 29th ult. the Empreſs, with the grand duke and dutcheſs, arrived at Moſcow, on ſledges, in 60 hours, being 360 Engliſh miles.—Her majeſty is to hold a national ſynod of archbiſhops and biſhops for a reformation of diſcipline, &c.——The counteſs and ſenatrix of Ethbald has been made a member of the royal accademy of Sweden, for her many valuable experiments in the art of œconomy, and the prince who is preſident, has granted her his royal patent for publiſhing them——Some extraordinary affair ſeems to be on the tapis, a German prince having demanded of France 40,000 auxiliaries.

ITALY.

The mutual evacuation of conqueſts has not yet been performed, but the Auſtrian priſoners at Genoa, and the Genoeſe hoſtages at Mi- lan have been releaſed —The remonſtrances of the K. of Sardinia, againſt the Spaniards demolition of the fortifications of Montmelian in Savoy, being ineffectual, he ordered as much of the works of the citadel of Placentia to be ruined, and gave notice of it to the commiſſaries at Nice, on which the Spaniards deſiſted.

Avignon, Jan. 6. On the 2d, at five in the evening, the eldeſt ſon of the Chevalier de St. George, who had been here ever ſince the 24th of laſt month, made his public entry into this capital, with great ſolemnity, being in a coach and ſix with the Lord Dumbar, preceded by a troop of the Pope's horſe, and followed by coaches of the nobility, and repair'd to the archiepiſcopal palace, where he had a ſupper and a ball, and was complimented with addreſſes from the tribunals, and alſo a firework. He ſent, by the French Officer who conducted him to Pont-Beauvoiſin, a letter to the king, to inform his majeſty, among other matters, that he had left in his hotel at Paris the ſum of 600,000 livres in ſpecie, and to remind him that there were 800,000 livres of his penſion in arrears, of which he ſtood in need.

GERMANY.

Hanover. The troops of this electorate are to be new cloth'd after Eaſter in our own manufacture from Gottingen, and all foreign utenſils for ſoldiers are ſtrictly forbid; and for the peace no rejoicings or fireworks are to be exhibited.

Mecklenbourgh. The long differences between the duke and the nobility are terminated, to the great ſatisfaction of the people, who were oppreſſed on both ſides for want of a proper judicature to relieve them.

FRANCE.

The count de Maurepas has propoſed a ſcheme for regulating the French ſugar colonies, by which every ſettlement is obliged to furniſh a certain quantity of the neceſſaries of life, before they ſhall be allowed to cultivate ſugar, or any other ſaleable commodities; this is approved as the only means of preventing the ruin of theſe plantations, which would have been inevitable, if the war had continued 9 months longer.—

Madame Adelaide will ſpeedily be married to the duke of Savoy, and Madame Victoria to prince Xavier of Saxony, who is invited by the nobility of Poland to reſide at Warſaw where he will have a numerous and ſplendid court of young nobles. A third match is projected between the princeſs Elizabeth, daughter to Don Philip, and the prince of Conde, who are to be educated at this court.

NETHERLANDS.

Bruſſels, Jan. 28. This morning the French (who had quitted Mechlin, Louvain, &c. ſome days before) evacuated this city, after near two years poſſeſſion, and the Imperialiſts immediately entered the place under a general diſcharge of the artillery.——The ſame day the Iſland of Cadſant, and all the towns and forts in Dutch Flanders were reſtored.—But as the works of Mons, Aeth, Charleroy, Menin, and Oudenarde are deſtroyed, the great towns of Bruſſels, Ghent, and others, lie open to the power of the French.—The Dutch priſoners in France, making 13,400 men, are marching homeward.——The Empreſs propoſes to re-fortify, with the aſſiſtance of the Dutch, ſome of the foremention'd fortreſſes, for a barrier.

Country Tradeſman.

WHEN will profuſion leave a bankrupt realm?
When folly ceaſe? and prudence guide the helm?
